

Disguised Robocalls: The FCC should outlaw robocalls which appear on caller ID with local area codes and exchanges, making it look like the call is from a member of your community. This is happening on both land lines and cell phones, and is extremely aggravating. This is a purposeful violation of the "Do Not Call" law, and makes it impossible to report the offending caller's phone number !